November 1, 2011

Dear Families,

This morning our students, staff, parents, and many of parish community, celebrated mass honoring the Feast of All Saints. In the Church, the first two days of November are the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls. Saints can be found in all walks of life. All Saints Day is a celebration of all Saints who have ever reached the purpose of their lives, the City of God, the achievement of the end for which we were all created.

Following the example of those who loved God and neighbor we strive to live a moral and true life. Look at any list of Saints and you will also find sinners. This teaches us that sin itself does not have to be the final word, though it can be, if we choose.

On All Souls Day we remember the large number of people who died repentant but not really ready to encounter the divine life. Saints and philosophers alike agree that no one would want to stand before God unless he was sufficiently cleansed.

When we sin, our sins are not simply against one another, they are also against God. How often shall we forgive our neighbor? Christ answered this question of the apostle by saying not just seven times but seventy times seven times. That is to say, the core of our issues with God remains as long as we can find it in our heart to forgive. But we have to make the choice to do so. This choosing is what we do in the drama of our actual lives. All Saints and All Souls – these two days, if we think of them, reach the very foundations of our being.

A Message from Mrs. Cetti

Dear Parents, Students and Teachers,
I would like to express my sincere gratitude for the outpouring of love and support that you have given me over the years. I will be forever grateful for the gift of friendship that God has given me through you. St. Anthony's will remain forever in my heart. The party that was held in my honor last Thursday night at the Limelight Restaurant was simply overwhelming. I can't thank you enough for all that was done on my behalf. It was a beautiful night to be able to say goodbye to those that I didn't have a chance to reach out to during my last few days at St. Anthony's. Please know that I would have loved to connect with everyone but time did not allow me that luxury. I don't know what else to say other than "thank you from the depths of my heart". I will miss all of you but know that there will always be a connection that time and distance cannot sever. To all "my kids" that I love and will miss so very much, I would like to extend an invitation to have some time together. Please join me Friday, November 4th at Yodigity Yogurt Shop on the southwest corner of Bullard and West. I will be there from 2:45 to 4:00pm and would love to see everyone that can make it after school ...a simple hug and love from the kids that I care about so very much would truly make my day!! Again, thank you to everyone that made my time at St. Anthony's so very special. I ask God to continue blessing you and the St. Anthony's community.
With much love,
Mrs. Cetti (aka Miss Sandy)
